for the outpouring of the Spirit and true revival in all nations.*

I BELIEVE

I have no special vision from heaven, I am just a believer.

I believe in the God of Revival, who will pour our His blessing upon us and convict the hardest souls of their sins. When fire came upon the altar Elijah built, not even the stones remains, for this reason I believe the Holy Spirit in Revival fire will consume the hardest souls and turn them to Christ.

I have always petitioned the Lord, that He might not judge us yet, specially, these millennia generation. I prayed Him that He gives us a chance at beholding His glory, and if we fail to please him, then He should do to us He pleases.

Hear some of my groaning: “Oh Lord! This generation has seen Technology, we have seen all sorts of Sports, we have Entertainment at its best, but we have not seen the Power of God, don’t judge us yet oh God, show us your power and give us Revival”.

Many times I have wept, and lamented in the place of prayer, baring my soul before Christ the head of the Church at the condition of ruin, and the broken walls of the Church, that He (God) will pity us and send us Revival – that the Church may be restored to her original glory.

With great joy I announce to you, that our prayers of many years, the heart cry of many saints and secrete intercessors who are and who have gone to be with the Lord is about to produce the greatest phenomena this generation has ever seen – Revival.

Praise God is the shout in my soul, at this great coming manifestation of God's grace. For many souls shall be saved by the Spirit, we shall all be refreshed, the Church of Christ shall be restored in glory, honor and visible power of Christ.

Beloved, sharpen your knees as I have done, for it is time to pray more than ever before, that this long awaited Revival might not be aborted.

Pray for Israel, Pray for your nation.

Just Believe.
